SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

COUNTY OF NAPA

STANDING ORDER OF THE NAPA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT	ORDER RE: THE STATUS OF TEMPORARY AND CURRENT ORDERS

Effective March 18, 2020, in accord with its plan to mitigate the spread of the COVID-19 virus, and upon consideration by and with the approval of the Judges of the Napa County Superior Court, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. All previously granted temporary orders shall remain in full force and effect until the next hearing date for:

- Mental health-related civil matters such as petitions for permanent conservatorships (both probate and LPS) and, if applicable, biennial reviews and accountings;
- Petitions for permanent guardianships or other guardianship matters;
- Family law ex parte applications; and
- Restraining order matters such as temporary restraining orders.

2. All current orders shall remain in full force and effect pending the next hearing date for:

- Petitions for Orders Compelling Involuntary Treatment with Anti-Psychotic Medication;
- Petitions for Relief from Firearms Prohibition; and
- Petitions for Electric Shock Therapy.

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF NAPA

GENERAL ORDER RE: IMPLEMENTATION OF EMERGENCY RELIEF AUTHORIZED PURSUANT TO GOVERNMENT CODE SECTION 68115 BY CHAIR OF JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Exercising the authority granted under Government Code section 68115 and the March 17, 2020 Order ("Order") of Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye, Chair of the Judicial Council of California, issued in response to the March 17, 2020 request for an emergency order made by the Superior Court of Napa County ("Court"), this Court HEREBY FINDS AND ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

1.   For purposes of computing time for filing papers with the Court under Code of Civil Procedure sections 12 and 12a, from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, are deemed holidays (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(4));

2.   For purposes of computing time under Penal Code section 825, and Welfare and Institutions Code sections 313, 315, 334, 631, 632, 637, and 657, from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, are deemed holidays (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(5));

3.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time periods provided in sections 583.310 and 583.320 of the Code of Civil Procedure to bring an action to trial by not more than 15 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(6));

4.   Any judge of the Court may extend by not more than 30 days the duration of any temporary restraining order that would otherwise expire on from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, because the emergency condition described in the Order prevented the Court from conducting proceedings to determine whether a permanent order should be entered (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(7));

5.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 825 of the Penal Code within which a defendant charged with a felony offense must be taken before a magistrate from 48 hours to not more than 7 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(8));

6.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 859b of the Penal Code for the holding of a preliminary examination from 10 court days to not more than 15 court days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(9));

7.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 1382 of the Penal Code for the holding of a criminal trial by not more than 30 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(10));

8.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 313 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor taken into custody pending dependency proceedings must be released from custody to not more than 7 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));

9.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire on from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 315 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor taken into custody pending dependency proceedings must be given a detention hearing to not more than 7 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));

10.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time periods provided in sections 632 and 637 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a minor taken into custody pending wardship proceedings and charged with a felony must be given a detention hearing or rehearing to not more than 7 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(11));

11.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 334 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a hearing on a juvenile dependency petition must be held by not more than 15 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(12)); and

12.   In cases in which the statutory deadline otherwise would expire from March 18, 2020 through April 10, 2020, inclusive, any judge of the Court may extend the time period provided in section 657 of the Welfare and Institutions Code within which a hearing on a wardship petition for a minor charged with a felony offense must be held by not more than 15 days (Gov. Code, § 68115(a)(12)).

THIS ORDER IS EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY.
