EXPERIENCE

Xavier Lavoipierre is the principal of Pacific Mediation, and provides mediation services throughout the San Francisco Bay Area and beyond. Mr. Lavoipierre has over 30 years of experience as an attorney and mediator, and the vast majority of cases he mediates are successfully resolved. His legal background includes representation of both plaintiffs and defendants in civil litigation, handling a wide range of matters including employment, real estate, landlord-tenant, construction, personal injury, toxic waste, general business disputes and appeals. Mr. Lavoipierre has tried cases in Sonoma, Marin, San Francisco, Contra Costa and Solano counties, and has been involved in hundreds of trials, mediations, arbitrations, settlement conferences and administrative hearings as an advocate, decision maker and neutral.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

A 1987 graduate of the University of Oregon School of Law, Mr. Lavoipierre was the executive editor of the University of Oregon School of Law's Journal of Environmental Law and Litigation.

Mr. Lavoipierre has received mediation certificates through Ron Kelly's Mediation Skills Training (offered by the Bar Association of San Francisco) and RECOURSE Mediation Services. He regularly attends additional training courses and seminars to further advance his mediation skills and knowledge. In addition to providing private mediation services, he serves as a mediator for organizations and courts in the Bay Area.

RATES

Base rate is $400 per hour, but can vary depending on the number of parties. All time spent on the matter is billed, including preparation time, document review, research, pre-mediation conferences, hearing time and follow-up. Travel time, if necessary, is billed at a discounted rate. No intake, set up or other administrative fees.
